I am desired to invite a reference to the correspondence ending with Major James' demi-official letter No. 9181, dated the 3rd December 1917, regarding the grant of monetary assistance to Mr. Jaya Krishna Rao now in Vienna.

2. I am now to forward a copy of a telegram No. 703-E.A., dated the 15th March1920, from the Government of India, Foreign and Political Department. It appears from a letter sent in June 1916, by the India Office to the Government of India in the Home Department that all monies advanced to British Prisoners of war in enemy countries by Diplomatic representatives of Neutral Powers at the request of the British Authorities are loans, which will have to be recovered when the war is over, an it was stated in that letter that it would have to be decided when Mr. Jaya Krishna Rao is able to return to India, whether the money advanced to him should be recovered from him or from the Imperial Indian Relief Fund. I am accordingly to enquire whether the circumstances of the family of Mr. Jaya Krishna Rao are such as to admit of the sums advanced being repaid, and, if not; to ask whether the Durbar would be prepared t make such charitable grant to the individual in question as to meet the claims against him.

3. I am to add that it appears that in addition to the monthly allowance paid from the British Prisoners of War Fund, advances aggregating Rs. £ 130 were given to him at different times by the India Office, London, and this amount was recovered from the Imperial Indian Relief Fund, Mysore and Coorg Branch.

*This appears to have been at the rate of £ 6-15 at first and to have been increased to £ 8-10 in June 1916

Dear Major Plowden,

With reference to your D. O. letter No.3297 regarding monetary assistance to Mr. Jaya Krishna Rao now in Vienna. Some enquiries are being made about the circumstances of his family and I shall address you as soon as the result of the enquiry is known. But from the information on record, it seems to me that the present allowance might be continued to Mr. Jaya Krishna Rao till 1st May 1920 or the earliest opportunity at which he would be able to leave Vienna. I do not think there would be any justification for the continuance of the allowance, in case he is unwilling to leave Vienna, though facilities are available for his leaving the place. I shall write to you further as already stated.

I have heard the letter of the Government, dated 10th April 1920, read to me - My husband was getting only Rs 50/ a month as a schoolmaster here before he went to Vienna with our daughter. He was helped by H. H. the Maharaja of Mysore to a large extent, and we have sold away what little jewels we had. Because our position is so bad that I have been forced to accept the monetary assistance of Rs 20/- a month from Government for my living here. So, I cannot find means to send any money to my Dhanam.

As regards the refund money till now advanced to us, I may entail my husband's return and find out if he can find means to do so.

There is nobody else to help us. My husband's brother, Sri Sita Rama Raju is a Taluk Inspector and Tahsildar, but he cannot help us either, as he has a very large family depending upon him.
